

NAME: _____

Authority? or Power without Authority?

Power: If one person makes another do something, that person is using power.

What do you think? Who is doing something because they decided to do it? Who is doing something because someone made them?

	Did they decide to do it?	Did someone else make them?
Christine decided to ride her bike home after school instead of walking.
Kim's mother made her wait an hour after eating before going swimming.
Troy could not watch the basketball game because his brother kept changing the channel.
Harry gave a dollar to a person playing a guitar on the street.

STANDARDS SS.3.4.2

Describe ways in which people exercise power without authority.

Authority: the right to use power to influence or control the behavior of others.

Does everyone who uses power have the authority/right to do that?

Y or N? _____

What do you think? Who is acting with Authority? Who is acting with Power but NO Authority?

	AUTHORITY?	POWER without Authority?
Another student on the playground forces you to give up your money.
Your teacher tells you to stop running around the room.
The State Legislature made a law that says you can't toss trash on the street or you'll get a ticket.
The person next to you in class tells you to give them the answers to the test or they'll 'get you' after school

